David Nelson & Banana

3 maart 2007 | David Nelson & Banana

Een select publiek was vanavond getuige van de geboorte van de Hippiecana, een muziekstroming waarvan de basis reeds lang geleden gelegd moet zijn door David Nelson (Grateful Dead, New Riders of the Purple Sage) en Banana (Youngbloods). Proud To Be A Hippie From Olema zingt Banana als antwoord op Merle Haggard's Okie From Muskogee. Ondanks de verworvenheden van de moderne tijd werden we daar toch een beetje melancholisch van.

1. Drifting With The Tide [ traditional]
2. Interlude [ instrumental] [ Lowell Levinger]
3. Are You Waiting Just For Me [ Ernest Tubb]
4. Two Soldiers [ Jerry Garcia/David Grimson]
5. Oh The Wind And The Rain [ traditional] aka "Cruel Sister" or "Two Sisters" or "Two", first recorded by Appalachian Mountain singer John Kilby Snow
6. Hippie From Olema [ Lowell Levinger] Banana's answer to Merle Haggard's "Okie From Muskogee"
7. I Know You're Married [ Don Reno/Mack Magaha]
8. Love Call Waltz [ Don Reno]
9. Cuckoo [ traditional]
10. Freight Train Boogie [ Bob Nodor/Jim Scott]

1. First Whippoorwill [ Bill Monroe]
2. Mill Valley Waltz [ instrumental] [ David Grisman]
3. You Left Town This Morning [ E.P. Williams]
4. Poor Old Dirt Farmer [ Tracy Schwarz]

5. Darkness Darkness [ Jesse Colin Young]
6. No Longer A Sweetheart [ Don Reno/Arthur Smiley/Fred Swift]
7. Wicked Path Of Sin [ Bill Monroe]
8. Last Lonely Eagle [ John Dawson]
9. Millionaire [ David Olney]
10. Panama Red [ Peter Rowan]
11. Ripple [ Robert Hunter/Jerry Garcia]

David Nelson vocals, acoustic guitar
